

Islands Journey

In the mood for an Island Getaway?

IUCN is further developing its work on islands through its Islands Initiative, which focuses on addressing integrated management challenges for marine, coastal and terrestrial ecosystems, for the conservation of island biodiversity and the sustainable development of island communities. The islands journey will include taking you through; IUCN launching its Caribbean Initiative, the outcomes of the recent Reunion Conference on climate change and biodiversity loss in the EU's overseas islands, the expanding work of IUCN and its members in Oceania, and the latest developments in the Global Island Partnership (GLISPA). SO!!

Come on this journey to discover what IUCN and its members are doing in islands, share what you do and contribute towards what more can be done to assist islands in meeting their conservation and development challenges. AND make some islands friends along the way!

Set sail on the journey by collecting your information pack at the Global Island Partnership (GLISPA) booth and we have events plotted out for each day of the forum. To make the best of the sun and the surf along the way, there will be a rest stop, an Island Fiesta, on 9th October, at The World Trade Centre Barcelona. The journey will provide opportunities to discuss, network, share invigorating ideas and to provide input as IUCN's Islands Initiative gets underway.
