

Thursday, April 1, 2010

2:00-6:00 p.m.

Roundtable Colloquium

“Climate Change Law and Policy after Copenhagen”

COP15
COPENHAGEN

Location:

Eidman Courtroom, UT
School of Law

Three Panel

Presentations each followed by Q & A

1. The New Direction of the Copenhagen
Accord
2. Significant National
Developments
3. Climategate Fallout

Reception to follow

The IUCN Commission on Environmental Law & The University of Texas at Austin School of Law present a roundtable colloquium on “Climate Change Law and Policy after Copenhagen.”

International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN)

- The IUCN is the world’s oldest and largest global environmental network – a democratic membership union with more than 1,000 government and NGO member organizations.
- The IUCN Commission on Environmental Law serves as the principal resource for legal technical advice to the Union, its members and its collaborating institutions on all aspects of environmental law. It supports action by international governmental organizations, governments and non-governmental organizations to develop legal and institutional infrastructure that support sustainable development.

University of Texas Sponsors:

- Center for Global Energy, International Arbitration, and Environmental Law
- Center for International Energy and Environmental Policy
- Center for Sustainable Development
- Energy Management and Innovation Center
- Environmental Science Institute
- The Energy Institute

Please contact Gena Dawson, GDawson@law.utexas.edu for additional information.