

IUCN, INTERNATIONAL UNION FOR CONSERVATION OF NATURE

THE REGIONAL COUNCILLORS OF IUCN
ELECTION, ROLE, FUNCTION AND QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED

(as approved by the IUCN Council in August 2007)

1. Election

The IUCN Regional Councillors are elected by the World Conservation Congress following the provisions of Article 39 of the Statutes and paragraphs 36 to 40 of the IUCN Regulations. There are twenty-four Regional Councillors, three from each of IUCN's eight Statutory Regions. The Council may fill any vacancies which occur for the balance of the Council term. (Article 43)¹.

2. Terms of Office

The terms of office of the Regional Councillors shall extend from the close of the ordinary session of the World Conservation Congress at which they are elected, until the close of the next ordinary session of the World Conservation Congress. Regional Councillors elected to fill a vacancy, serve for the balance of the term during which they are elected (Article 41).

3. Role of Regional Councillors

- (i) As members of Council, Regional Councillors serve first and foremost the global interests and well-being of IUCN, fulfilling the functions of the IUCN Council as outlined in Article 46 of the Statutes and providing guidance on the overall development and implementation of the Union's world-wide policies and programmes in the period between sessions of the World Conservation Congress.;
- (ii) Within the above parameters, Regional Councillors provide input to the Council on the interests, priorities and needs of the IUCN Members in the Regions;
- (iii) Regional Councillors act as IUCN's ambassadors, working with the President and Director General to advance the interests and Mission of the Union and to promote its services within the Region;
- (iv) Regional Councillors serve as key contact points in the Region to facilitate the work of the Director General and Secretariat, members of Commissions and IUCN Members;
- (v) Working actively with IUCN Regional and National Committees, IUCN Regional Offices and Members, Regional Councillors assist in promoting the work of the Union.

4. Functions of Regional Councillors
